

BRISTOL CONCERT ORCHESTRA

Stefan Hofkes conductor • Frankie Carr cello • Jo Edwards violin

Schubert

Symphony No.9 'Great'

Bruch

Kol Nidrei

(Adagio on Hebrew Melodies)

for solo cello and orchestra

Saint-Saens

La Muse et le Poète

for violin, cello and orchestra

Bantock

The Sea Reivers

Bristol Concert Orchestra - Registered Charity No.1128196

SATURDAY 9 MARCH 2019, 7:30pm

St George's Bristol • Tel: 0845 40 24 001

Book online: www.bristolconcertorchestra.org.uk

Tickets: £15, £12, £8 (conc. £13, £10, £6), children £1

plus £1 per transaction postage fee

Retiring collection for St Peter's Hospice

Bristol Concert Orchestra, conductor Stefan Hofkes

Saturday 9 March 2019, 7:30pm at St George's Bristol

Schubert Symphony No.9, Bruch Kol Nidrei, Saint-Saens and Bantock

Frankie Carr

We are delighted to welcome not one, but two, incredibly talented young soloists to perform at this concert: Cellist Frankie Carr who has studied at the Julliard School, and violinist Jo Edwards who performed with us at St George's Bristol in June 2013.

Jo Edwards

The tumultuous conclusion of Bantock's The Sea Reivers (a 'Hebridean Sea-Poem' depicting pirate exploits), gives way to the captivating beauty and calm of Bruch's Kol Nidrei (Adagio on two Hebrew melodies) for solo cello and orchestra.

Young virtuoso cellist Frankie Carr is then joined by talented local violinist Jo Edwards in the Saint-Saens rarity La Muse et le Poète - something of an intimate conversation between the rhapsodic muse (violin) coaxing the poet (cello) into ever more elaborate excursions upwards towards the energetic close.

For the grand finale, Schubert's 'Great Symphony (No.9). The last symphony he completed, it was written when he (mistakenly) thought his ill-health had abated, so this work 'of heavenly length' is full of the joys of life and rhythmical vigour including the breathtaking and restless last movement relentlessly propelling us towards the majestic conclusion.

There will be a retiring collection for St Peter's Hospice

Tickets: £8-£15 (concessions £6-£13), children £1

BOOK ONLINE & choose your own seats at
www.bristolconcertorchestra.org.uk
£1 per transaction postage fee

The BCO child-friendly-ometer!

This concert may be best suited to children who are already used to going to concerts.

Coming soon.....

Saturday 29 June 2019, 7:30pm
St George's Bristol
Bernstein Candide Overture
Gershwin An American in Paris
Barber Adagio for Strings
Barber Knoxville: Summer of 1915
John Williams Star Wars Suite

*** Tickets on sale now ***

www.bristolconcertorchestra.org.uk